EARL K. LONG'S REGIME RAPPED

Opponents Continue To Criticize Governor In Speeches

(By Associated Press)
Anti-administration candidates slammed the regime of Governor Earl K. Long in speeches and statements vesterday and today Sam Jones of Lake Charles, continuing his tour of the sugar belt, said yesterday at Golden Meadow, Houma and Thibodaux that the administration had "sold out" Louisiana's sugar interests, and charged that it had offered to replace Congressman Robert Mouton of Lafayette with former Congressman Numa Montet to gain sugar belt support.

State Senator James A. Noe of Monroe, in a statement issued today, urged a four-point program to broaden the state's social security program. Noe's suggestion, outlined in a letter to the council of social agencies at New Orleans, urged provision for unemployed who cannot qualify for relief under WPA or state regulations, more adequate facilities for care of the blind, the aged and dependent children, an investigation by an impartial committee into care of the mentally ill and of state institutions harboring them, and increased care for tuberculosis patients, West Monroe's biggest event of the year.

The Little Chicago Association wishes to announce that it has extended an invitation to all the candidates for the governorship of Louisiana to speak at Little Chicago during its annual celebration Tuesday and Wednesday.

The invitation was extended the gubernatorial candidates as a matter of courtesy and with the hope that the talks would give added attraction to Monroe and Circulars being distributed by gubernatorial candidates speaking in Monroe during the Little Chicago celebration are being distributed by the candidates themselves—not by anyone connected with the association.

The Little Chicago Association is in NO WAY interested in PROFES-SIONAL POLITICS. Its sole purpose is to provide the people of Monroe and West Monroe and their neighbors in northeast Louisiana with two days of fun.

Besides the gubernatorial candidates, anyone running for office in Ouachita parish is invited to use the speaker's stand in Little Chicago during the two-day burlesque.
